EARL GREY MARTINI 35

Never Never Navy Strength, Earl Grey, Lemon, Sugar, Egg White

This drink was created by Audrey Saunders, one of New York City's most famous bartenders of recent history. She was the pioneer behind the iconic Pegu Club bar, which operated from 2005 until 2020. This delicate cocktail provides smooth notes of earl grey complimented by fresh citrus and a sugar rim to bring everything together.

RENAISSANCE 60

Michter's 10 Year Bourbon, Mancino Bianco, Ruby Port, Grand Marnier

Opened in 1934, the famous Rainbow Room in New York City has long been revered as one of the city's most luxurious and high-profile venues. Home to the "King of Cocktails", Dale DeGroff, known for his skill and books on bartending. The Renaissance, featured on their menu, defines elegance with a delicate balance of dry vermouth and sweet ruby port, enhanced by a mist of Grand Marnier.

CAFÉ DE PARIS 350

Paradis Hennessy, Krug, Sugar, Bitters

A rare survivor of the 1920s nightclub boom, this notorious cabaret venue opened in Piccadilly Circus in London in 1924 and closed in 2020. It quickly became an iconic location hosting the likes of Frank Sinatra and Grace Kelly. This venue boasted a menu of premium champagne and spirits. We present our premium champagne cocktail as an ode to this piece of history.

PREMIUM SAZERAC 75

Hennessy XO, Peychaud's Orange Bitters, Absinthe

Sazerac de Forge et Fils was the first Old World company to export its fine French brandy to the New World in the 19th century. It was popular in New Orleans during the waning days of French Creole culture, when it eventually made the acquaintance of absinthe, sugar and Peuchaud's bitters. Thus, the Sazerac as we know it today was born. Today, New Orleans is still home to the original Sazerac Bar, located in the 1940s-era Roosevelt Hotel.

PREMIUM MARGARITA 50

Fortaleza Anejo, Pierre Ferrand Curaçao, Lime, Lava Salt

The first known mention of a tequila-based cocktail called the “margarita” appeared on the 17th of September, 1953 in a California newspaper called the Press Democrat. In an article, titled “Memo from Mike by Michael Demarest”, Demarest recounts a meal in Ensenada, Mexico washed down with “margaritas”.
